FINANCIAL SECRETARIAT.

Amendment of Art. 209 B(i) of the Mysore Service Regulations.

ORDER NO. FI. 4076-135—S. & A. 64-25-2, DATED 25TH JANUARY 1926.

Under the existing rules, whenever an officer whose appointment is not gazetted takes leave for not more than one month, or whenever such an officer's salary is less than Rs. 300, his pay when he gives up office is to be taken in lieu of average salary, for purposes of calculating furlough allowance. It has been brought to the notice of Government that this rule acts as a hardship in cases where an officer obtains promotion during the period of privilege leave forming part of the combined privilege leave and furlough taken by him. It is desirable to remove this hardship and Government are accordingly pleased to direct that in future the furlough allowances of a non-gazetted officer be regulated by the pay when he gives up office and in the case of privilege leave combined with furlough, by the pay to which he is entitled when furlough commences.

Article 209B (i), Mysore Service Regulations, will accordingly be amended as follows :—

Whenever an officer, whose appointment is not gazetted, takes leave for not more than one month or whenever such an officer's salary is less than Rs. 300, his pay (not salary) when he gives up office, or, in cases of combined privilege leave and furlough, his pay (not salary) to which he is entitled when the furlough part of such leave commences, is to be taken in lieu of average salary.

This order will have effect from 1st January 1926.

M. N. KRISHNA RAO,
Financial Secretary to Government.
